

Deep End Conference Program: Friday April 12th and Saturday April 13th, 2024, Glasgow University

DAY ONE: FRIDAY 12/04 AFTERNOON

SESSION ONE: WELLBEING AT THE MARGINS

Chair: Carey Lunan, Scottish Deep End Chair

14.00 Welcome and introduction: Carey Lunan

14.10 Keynote speaker: “The Deep End story so far” Professor Graham Watt, Scottish Deep End project.

14.30 “Missingness in healthcare” Professor Andrea Williamson, Scottish Deep End project.

14.50 “Shining a Light on the Invisible: Relational Injury, Access and Care” Dr Adam Burley, Consultant Clinical Psychologist, Clinical Lead - Rivers Centre, NHS Lothian.

15.40 “Teaching relational practice for health inequalities: Is it worth it?” Sarah Doyle, Professional Nurse Lead, Queen’s Nursing Institute Scotland

16.00 “Low threshold, high fidelity general practice” Dr Austin O’Carroll, Grangegorman Family Practice, Dublin

16.20 Panel discussion

17.00 Close

Video diaries to be woven throughout afternoon, so timings subject to slight changes.

DAY TWO: SATURDAY 13/04 MORNING

SESSION TWO: LIVED EXPERIENCE

Chair: Dr David Blane, Scottish Deep End project, Academic Lead

09.15 Welcome and introduction

09.20 Keynote speaker: “Help Isn’t Coming - How declining public faith in the NHS may be the nail in its coffin.” Darren McGarvey, author, musician, social commentator.

09.50 WORKSHOP 1 (90mins)

11.40 WORKSHOP 2 (60mins)

12.45 Lunch

DAY TWO: SATURDAY 13/04 AFTERNOON

SESSION THREE: Enabling Change (title TBC)

13.50 Welcome and introduction

14.00 Keynote speaker: online “Building a patient revolution (for careful and kind care) in the Deep End” Prof Victor Montori, Professor of Medicine, Mayo Clinic, Minnesota

14.30 WORKSHOP 3 (90mins)

SESSION FOUR: what’s the best use of us?

Chair: TBC

16.30 Keynote speaker: "Resisting enshittification: Reflections on advocacy and activism" Euan Lawson Editor, BJGP

17.00 Closing remarks

17.15 End